

Greg was born September 19, 1950 in Fort Dodge, Iowa to Dan and Charlene Carlisle. He married Claudia Grimsley on January 5, 1973. They lived in Arizona, New Mexico and Iowa during their married life, but settled in Phoenix where they bought a house in April, 1998. He spent most of his adult life as an over-the-road truck driver making friends and touching lives all over the country. Greg was passionate about NHRA drag racing and NBA basketball and loved to watch his grandsons play sports, especially baseball. He also enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He adored his wife and cherished his children and grandchildren.

Greg is survived by his wife, Claudia; two daughters, Kim Brundige of Fort Dodge, Iowa, four grandchildren and one great-granddaughter and Ginny Bold, husband Rick and grandsons Joshua and Jordan of Phoenix, Arizona; his mother,

Charlene Carlisle of Phoenix, Arizona; his sister, Cinda Brennan, husband Rick and daughter Kaitlyn of Phoenix, Arizona; his brother, Stephen, of Phoenix, Arizona; his mother-in-law Alice Grimsley of Harlan, Iowa; brothers-in-law, Gene Grimsley, wife

Shelly of Council Bluffs, Iowa, Mark Grimsley of Omaha, Nebraska and Timothy Grimsley of Avoca, Iowa; sisters-in-law, Debbie Chavez, husband Louie of Farmington, New Mexico and Ruthanne Grimsley of Harlan, Iowa; numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his father, Dan Carlisle in October 2008 and his father-in-law, Leonard Grimsley in February 1986.

Greg will be deeply missed by his family and a multitude of friends.

GOD HATH NOT PROMISED

by Annie Johnson Flint & Alfred B Smith

God hath not promised skies always blue.
Flower strewn pathways all our lives through;
God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.

God hath not promised we shall not know
Toil and temptation, trouble and woe;
He hath not told us we shall not bear
Many a burden, many a care

God hath not promised smooth roads and wide,
Swift, easy travel, needing no guide;
Never a mountain, rocky and steep,
Never a river turbid and deep.

But God hath promised strength for the day
Rest for the labor, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above
Unfailing kindness, undying love.
